Guide to the Elevate Travel Comparison Chart

Destination

The destination country (or continent if multiple countries).

Class Term

The academic term when the course will run.

Spring or Fall Semester: Course runs entire semester

Spring or Fall I or II: Course runs in the first or last eight weeks of the respective semester.

Class Meeting Time

The anticipated course meeting time during the semester.

Asynchronous: No live meetings, coursework done independently

ASYN + ... : Coursework done independently + a limited number of live meetings, specific dates TBA by instructor.

Travel Term

When the travel program will travel. This is a predetermined date; students cannot choose an alternative term for a specific trip to run.

Class Term & Meeting Time

When the course will run. Class terms range from only during travel to a partial semester plus travel to a full semester plus travel.

# of Units

The unit value of the course. Students are expected to leave room in their academic schedule for the travel course.

Cost

The entire program cost per student. This is the cost for someone who is self-pay. Check out the trip's web page to understand what is and what is not included in the cost.

Cost: After Elevate

The entire program cost per student minus the Elevate Travel Credit. This is the cost for someone who has not yet used their Elevate Travel Credit. Check out the trip's web page to understand what is and what is not included in the cost.

Travel Insurance Fee

The Travel Insurance Fee is automatically applied to the account of every student who is participating in a travel program. This fee covers the cost of travel insurance.

Spending Money

The recommended amount of spending money to have while abroad. This takes into account the destination, length of travel program, number of meals, and potential souvenirs excluded from the travel program cost.

Deadline

The deadline for students to sign a Travel Agreement for their desired trip in the AMOS Travel Portal. All travel programs are first come, first serve.
