

Lehigh Valley Chapter Membership Fact Sheet

Membership

The Lehigh Valley Chapter of the Society for Neuroscience is a new professional organization dedicated to the study of the nervous system.

The Society of Neuroscience Mission

To advance the understanding of the brain and nervous system by bringing together scientists of diverse backgrounds, by facilitating the integration of research directed at all levels of biological organization, and by encouraging translational research and the application of new scientific knowledge to develop improved disease treatment and cures; to provide professional development activities, information, and educational resources for neuroscientists at all stages of their careers and increase participation of scientists from a diversity of cultural and ethnic backgrounds; to promote public information and general education about the nature of scientific discovery and the results and implications of the latest neuroscience research; and to inform legislators and other policymakers about new scientific knowledge and recent developments in neuroscience research and their implications for public policy, societal benefit, and continued scientific progress.

Membership Categories

Regular. Any person who has done research relating to the neurosciences is eligible for regular membership.

Regular Postdoc. Any person who has obtained their doctoral degree and is currently working in a postdoctoral trainee program.

*Student. Students enrolled in programs at degree-granting institutions of higher education are eligible to apply for student membership. Student membership shall terminate at the end of the first membership year in which the student is able to apply for another class of membership after completing or otherwise leaving the degree granting program. Former student members shall be eligible for election to another class of membership according to the same procedures and criteria as other scientific workers.

Affiliate. All persons interested in the Society's objectives but not eligible for regular or student membership may be appointed to affiliate membership. Categories of affiliate membership shall be as defined in the Resolutions to Bylaws.

 Please note: If you are applying for student membership, you must secure the signature of a regular member of the Society for Neuroscience.
