Individual/Org: Brooke Coonrod <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Amount Requested: $700.00 b. Request description: Brooke Coonrod, department of biological sciences requesting funding for honor's thesis project. She will be completing her research throughout the spring on campus. Research based on how SeMet is protecting RAW 264.7 Macrophages, white blood cells in comparison to antibiotics through inhibiting cell death. She utilizes a one use only lab (more expensive). The funds would be used to obtain cytokine to see if cells are going through cell death (ELISA Kit). total cost for the project is $1100, however the requested amount is $700, the biology department will cover the difference. Funding would allow them to test and prove their hypothesis. c. Motion: Motion to prove in full $700.00 <ol style="list-style-type: none"> i. First: Sean ii.
